Those Really Wonderful

Tailored Suits

We Have Been Fortunate in Securing a

For the benefit of those who found it impossible to attend our big Suit Sale of last week, it is with pleasure we announce the arrival of a new lot. And, if possible, they are better Suits (better materials, therefore better values) than those on sale before. And those who saw them will have an idea of what wonderful Suits these must be.

HIGH-CLASS SUITS, the regular retail value of which ranges upward to $39.50; all $18.50 at one extraordinary low price....

Popular Materials and Absolutely Correct Styles!

Among them you will find Handsome Broadcloth Suits, trimmed with fur; also other materials, trimmed with fur, broadtail or velvet.

EVERY COLOR AND EVERY SIZE, and every Suit is absolutely NEW, in style as well as material. SAMPLE SUITS, to which we have added a number of odd Suits from our regular high priced lines. Many distinct models-in fact, there are scarcely two Suits of any one kind.

We invite your inspection.

SPECIAL NOTICE: Owing to the limited quantity and the big demand that will result from this announcement, we shall not be able to fill mail orders for these Suits, nor will any be sent on approval or onfidently Expects to See District Swing Into Democratic Column in 1916-Floating Vote All Went to Republicans.

Democrats of the Ninth Congres sional District are in no way east down by the result of the recent election. R. Tate Irvine, of Big Stone Gap, who contested with Congressman C Pascom Siemp the honor of representing the district in the next Congress, was in Elemond yesterday, and argued some coal land cases before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. He was asked what effect the loss of the election would have on the Democracy of the fighting pinth racy of the fighting ninth.

"While we hoped for victory," replied Mr. irvine, "defeat has not digheartened the party and will not lessen its fighting spirit for the future, We polled nearly 14,500 votes, which was the biggest Democratic vote cast in any congressional district in the EUGENE C. MASSIE IS NAMED
